Taking action in our community to end violence

PREVENTION EDUCATION AT CARDV

CARDV Advocates are working tirelessly to reach more people in our community than ever before. Our outreach focus continues to include:

Education

Community Educators and Advocates presented at

- OSU and LBCC campuses
- Service organizations in Monroe, Sweet Home and Lebanon
- Linn & Benton County schools
(we've presented to 2,761 students this year alone!)

Connection

Being a Presence in the Community

- CARDV Advocates and staff have tabled at Juneteenth, Lebanon and Albany Pride events this summer!

Support

Supporting Survivors through Empowerment Programs

- Our Domestic Violence and Sexual Assault support groups have returned.

ANNOUNCEMENT!

Empowerment Groups have returned!

Call CARDV's 24-hr Crisis & Support Line at 541-754-0110
for more information.

- In collaboration with Central Willamette Credit Union, we're helping survivors find financial freedom with our Financial Empowerment program.

For more information about support programs, please call 541-754-0110.

Are You Interested...?

Help restart the Men's Coalition to End Violence (MCEV) Support Group! This voluntary group's mission is to educate and motivate men to unite with women to end violence and discrimination against women and girls.
